

ALLAH NAWAZ

THE RADIANCE OF DIVINE LOVE: THE LIFE
AND MIRACLES OF HAZRAT NAWAZ ALLAH
RABBANI

Table of Contents

Sl No	Title	Page No
1	Part No 1: The Divine Birth
	Chapter 1: The Sacred Moment	1
	Chapter 2: Signs of a Chosen One	5
	Chapter 3: The Divine Childhood	6
2	Part 2: Spiritual Lineage
	Chapter 4: The Eleven Qamil Peers	7
	Chapter 5: The Path to Sultan ul Faqr	9
	Chapter 6: The Spiritual Journeys	10
3	Part 3: Miracles and Divine Powers
	Chapter 7: Celestial Command	11
	Chapter 8: Visions Beyond the Physical	12
	Chapter 9: Intercession with the Divine	13
	Chapter 10: The Salaam of the Moon	14
4	Part 4: Spiritual Hierarchy and Legacy
	Chapter 11: Qutub Ul Aqtaab	15
	Chapter 12: The Chishti Qadiri Rifai Kalandari Path	16
	Chapter 13: Anal Haqq – The Truth Within	17
5	Part 5: Healing and Wisdom
	Chapter 14: The Quranic Body	18
	Chapter 15: The Healing Touch	19
	Chapter 16: Hazrat as Hakam	20
6	Part 6: Teachings and Philosophies
	Chapter 17: The Essence of Sufism	21
	Chapter 18: Love and Devotion	22
	Chapter 19: The Pursuit of Knowledge	23
7	Part 7: Legacy and Influence
	Chapter 20: Spiritual Influence	24
	Chapter 21: Continuing the Legacy	25

Part 1: The Divine Birth

Chapter 1: The Sacred Moment

The Night of Birth:

In the village of Manthala, nestled between serene hills and flowing rivers, the afternoon of February 28th, 1977, unfolded with a divine stillness that could be felt by all. The sun hung low, casting a golden glow over the world. Villagers gathered around Ammi's humble abode, whispering prayers, sensing that an extraordinary event was about to occur. As noon approached, the air thickened with anticipation. Ammi, struggling through labor, felt a divine presence surrounding her, guiding her through the pain. The fragrance of roses filled the air, and celestial whispers echoed softly, bringing comfort and peace.

The Birth of Hazrat Nawaz Allah:

At the stroke of noon, on the 11th Rabi' al-Awwal, 1397, a child was born—a child destined to illuminate the world with divine wisdom and love. As Ammi held her newborn son, she noticed a serene aura around him, a glow that seemed to connect him to the heavens. The stars above aligned in a cosmic dance, while the crescent moon appeared to bow in reverence, acknowledging the birth of a chosen one. The villagers, witnessing these celestial signs, gathered in awe, realizing that this child was marked for greatness. They named him Nawaz Allah Shian Lillah, recognizing him as a gift from Allah, destined to spread light and wisdom across the world.

Astrological and Spiritual Significance:

In Islamic tradition, the 11th of Rabi' al-Awwal is a day of blessings and divine mercy. It is believed that the heavens open to bestow blessings upon the earth. Hazrat's birth on this auspicious day was seen as a sign of his divine mission to spread love, peace, and wisdom.

His life was to be a testament to the power of divine love and the transformative impact of spiritual enlightenment.

Quranic Verse:

"And We have already sent messengers before you and assigned to them wives and descendants. And it was not for a messenger to come with a sign except by permission of Allah. For every term is a decree."

— Surah Ar-Ra'd (13:38)

Chapter 2: Signs of a Chosen One

Early Miracles and Signs:

From a young age, Hazrat exhibited signs of divine favor and spiritual insight. As a toddler, he was often seen conversing with the unseen, his eyes filled with wisdom beyond his years. His presence was calming, and those around him felt an inexplicable sense of peace and contentment.

The Miracle of the Rain:

One day, as Hazrat played in the courtyard, a gentle rain began to fall. The other children ran for shelter, but Hazrat remained seated, unaffected by the rain. To the amazement of the onlookers, not a single drop touched him. This incident was seen as a sign of divine protection and favor, marking him as a special soul destined for greatness.

A Visitor from the Divine:

At the age of seven, Hazrat experienced a profound encounter that would shape his spiritual journey. A man, radiant and clothed in white, appeared at his home. Speaking in soft tones, he imparted wisdom and taught Hazrat verses from the Quran. This visitor, believed to be an angel or a revered saint, instilled in Hazrat a deep love for Allah and the Quran, setting him on a path of spiritual discovery.

Quranic Verse:

"Indeed, those who believe and do righteous deeds—the Most Merciful will appoint for them affection."

— Surah Maryam (19:96)

Chapter 3: The Divine Childhood

A Prodigy of Wisdom:

As Hazrat grew, his reputation as a prodigy of wisdom spread throughout the village and beyond. He possessed an innate understanding of complex spiritual concepts, often astounding scholars and elders with his insights. People traveled from distant lands to seek his counsel, drawn by the magnetic pull of his divine presence.

Stories of Kindness and Compassion:

Hazrat's childhood was marked by acts of kindness and compassion. One winter, when the village was struck by a harsh storm, Hazrat organized efforts to provide shelter and warmth to those in need. His selfless actions inspired the community to come together in solidarity and care for one another, embodying the principles of love and service that he held dear.

The Vision of the Prophet:

In a dream, Hazrat was visited by the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), who blessed him and foretold of his future as a spiritual leader and guide. This vision solidified Hazrat's commitment to his path, reinforcing his mission to spread the teachings of Islam and illuminate the hearts of those he encountered.

Quranic Verse:

"Indeed, this Quran guides to that which is most suitable and gives good tidings to the believers who do righteous deeds that they will have a great reward."

— Surah Al-Isra (17:9)

Part 2: Spiritual Lineage

Chapter 4: The Eleven Qamil Peers

The Importance of Spiritual Guidance:

In the rich tapestry of Sufism, the guidance of a spiritual master is considered paramount. Hazrat was blessed with eleven Qamil Peers, each contributing to his spiritual growth and understanding. These mentors were not mere teachers but spiritual pillars who shaped his journey and molded his character.

Story of Hazrat Abbas:

Hazrat Abbas, the first of Hazrat's spiritual mentors, was a revered saint known for his profound wisdom and compassion. As a young boy, Hazrat would sit at Abbas's feet, listening intently to stories of prophets and saints. One day, Abbas shared the tale of a farmer who prayed for rain. His patience and unwavering faith led to an abundant harvest. This story taught Hazrat the virtues of patience and trust in Allah's timing, instilling in him a deep sense of reliance on divine providence.

Hazrat Sayyidina Khidr Alaihisalam:

Among Hazrat's spiritual guides was the legendary Hazrat Khidr, known for his eternal life and boundless wisdom. In a dream, Khidr appeared to Hazrat, imparting secrets of the universe and guiding him toward the path of Sultan ul Faqr—a spiritual state of complete reliance on Allah. This encounter deepened Hazrat's understanding of divine mysteries and strengthened his resolve to pursue the path of spiritual enlightenment.<sup>6</sup>

Quranic Verse:

"And when Moses said to his servant, 'I will not cease [traveling] until I reach the junction of the two seas or continue for a long period.'

So when they reached the junction between them, they forgot their fish, and it took its course into the sea, slipping away."

— Surah Al-Kahf (18:60-61)

Chapter 5: The Path to Sultan ul Faqr

The Meaning of Sultan ul Faqr:

The title "Sultan ul Faqr" is one of the highest spiritual ranks in Sufism. It signifies a soul that has achieved complete detachment from worldly desires, finding fulfillment in the love and service of Allah. This path is marked by trials, devotion, and profound inner transformation, leading to a state of spiritual awakening and enlightenment.

7 Years of Seclusion:

Hazrat undertook a spiritual retreat, isolating himself from the world for 7 Years. In a cave hidden from sight, he devoted himself to prayer and fasting, seeking to purify his soul and deepen his connection with the Creator. During this period, he experienced visions and divine revelations, gaining insights into the mysteries of existence and the nature of divine love.

The Transformation:

Emerging from his retreat, Hazrat was transformed. His presence radiated peace and light, drawing people from far and wide. He spoke with a wisdom that transcended human understanding, and his words touched the hearts of all who heard them. Hazrat's transformation was evident not only in his demeanor but also in his actions, as he dedicated his life to serving humanity and spreading the message of love and unity.

Quranic Verse:

"And those who believe and do righteous deeds, We will surely admit them among the righteous [into Paradise]."
— Surah Al-Ankabut (29:9)

Chapter 6: The Spiritual Journeys

Pilgrimage to Mecca:

Hazrat's spiritual journey took him to the holy city of Mecca, where he performed the pilgrimage and immersed himself in the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). This sacred journey deepened his connection with the divine and reinforced his commitment to spreading the message of Islam.

Encounter with Spiritual Luminaries:

During his travels, Hazrat encountered numerous spiritual luminaries who shared their wisdom and insights. In Medina, he spent time with scholars and Sufi masters, absorbing their teachings and expanding his understanding of divine love and service.

The Call to Service:

Inspired by his experiences and encounters, Hazrat returned to his homeland with a renewed sense of purpose. He dedicated his life to serving others, spreading the teachings of Islam, and guiding souls toward enlightenment. His journey was not just a physical pilgrimage but a spiritual quest for truth and understanding.

Quranic Verse:

"And whoever obeys Allah and the Messenger - those will be with the ones upon whom Allah has bestowed favor of the prophets, the steadfast affirmers of truth, the martyrs and the righteous. And excellent are those as companions."

— Surah An-Nisa (4:69)

Part 3: Miracles and Divine Powers

Chapter 7: Celestial Command

Command Over Moon and Stars:

Hazrat's connection with the celestial realm was evident in his ability to command the stars and the moon. One evening, as he stood in an open field, he raised his hands to the heavens and whispered a prayer. The stars shifted, forming an intricate pattern that guided travelers lost in the desert back to safety.

The Skeptic's Conversion:

A well-known skeptic, who had often doubted Hazrat's powers, witnessed this miracle. Overwhelmed by the divine spectacle, he fell to his knees and embraced the faith, becoming one of Hazrat's most devoted followers. This conversion was a testament to the power of faith and the transformative impact of witnessing a miracle firsthand.

Quranic Verse:

"The night and the day and the sun and the moon are but His creations; do not prostrate before them, but rather prostrate before God who has created them, if you truly serve Him."

— Surah Fussilat (41:37)

Chapter 8: Visions Beyond the Physical

Seeing the Unseen:

Hazrat possessed the rare ability to perceive events beyond the physical realm. His visions allowed him to foresee calamities and avert them through prayer and guidance. This gift was a testament to his deep spiritual connection and his role as a conduit of divine wisdom.

Saving a Village:

In one instance, Hazrat foresaw a devastating flood threatening a nearby village. He urged the villagers to evacuate to higher ground, and his warning saved countless lives. The villagers, in gratitude, built a mosque in his honor, dedicating their prayers to the saint who had saved them.

Quranic Verse:

"He has gained knowledge of the unseen, and is not stingy with his knowledge of the unseen."

— Surah At-Takwir (81:24)

A Gift of Foresight:

Hazrat's ability to see beyond the veil of the present extended to individual lives. He could guide those in distress by revealing hidden truths and paths to resolution, offering solace and hope to those in need.

Quranic Verse:

"Indeed, Allah alone has knowledge of the Hour and sends down the rain and knows what is in the wombs. And no soul perceives what it will earn tomorrow, and no soul perceives in what land it will die. Indeed, Allah is Knowing and Acquainted."

— Surah Luqman (31:34)

Chapter 9: Intercession with the Divine

Advocating for the Repentant:

Hazrat's ability to intercede with Allah was one of his most cherished gifts. He believed in the power of repentance and often prayed on behalf of those seeking forgiveness. His compassionate nature and unwavering faith allowed him to bridge the gap between the divine and humanity, offering a path to redemption and peace.

The Guilt-Ridden Merchant:

A wealthy merchant, burdened by guilt for past wrongdoings, sought Hazrat's help. Through Hazrat's prayers, the merchant found peace and was granted a second chance by Allah. He dedicated his wealth to charity, living a life of humility and service.

The Barren Woman's Blessing:

A woman, unable to bear children, came to Hazrat in tears. Moved by her plight, Hazrat prayed for her. Within a year, she was blessed with a healthy child, a testament to Hazrat's power to sway the divine will. This miracle was celebrated as a manifestation of divine mercy and love.

Quranic Verse:

"He is the One that accepts repentance from His Servants and forgives sins: and He knows all that you do."

— Surah Ash-Shura (42:25)

Chapter 10: The Salaam of the Moon

Divine Greeting:

During a large gathering, Hazrat delivered a sermon under the open sky. As he spoke, the moon visibly descended, appearing to bow in salaam to Hazrat. The crowd was awestruck, witnessing a celestial being paying homage to a saint of unparalleled purity and faith. This divine greeting was a sign of Hazrat's spiritual stature and his connection with the cosmic order.

Significance in Sufism:

In Sufi tradition, such celestial events are seen as affirmations of divine favor and spiritual authority. They reinforce the bond between the divine and the chosen ones, inspiring awe and devotion among followers. The moon's salute was interpreted as a symbol of divine approval and recognition of Hazrat's spiritual leadership.

Quranic Verse:

"And the moon - We have measured for it phases, until it returns [appearing] like the old date stalk."

— Surah Ya-Sin (36:39)

Part 4: Spiritual Hierarchy and Legacy

Chapter 11: Qutub Ul Aqtaab

Role and Responsibilities:

As Qutub Ul Aqtaab, Hazrat held a pivotal role in the spiritual hierarchy. This title, meaning "Pole of Poles," signifies his status as the spiritual axis around which the mystical world revolves. He guided souls toward enlightenment and maintained the balance of spiritual energy in the world. His presence was a source of guidance and inspiration for countless seekers.

Stories of Guidance:

Hazrat's wisdom and insight were sought by rulers and commoners alike. His guidance led to the prosperity of communities and the spiritual awakening of countless individuals. His teachings emphasized the importance of self-awareness, humility, and devotion to Allah.

A King's Counsel:

A king, facing unrest in his kingdom, turned to Hazrat for counsel. Through Hazrat's advice, the king implemented reforms that brought peace and prosperity to his land. Grateful, the king became a devoted follower, dedicating his reign to the service of Allah and his people.

Quranic Verse:

"And [mention] when your Lord said to the angels, 'Indeed, I will make upon the earth a successive authority.' They said, 'Will You place upon it one who causes corruption therein and sheds blood, while we declare Your praise and sanctify You?' Allah said, 'Indeed, I know that which you do not know.'"

— Surah Al-Baqarah (2:30)

Chapter 12: The Chishti Qadiri Rifai Kalandari Path

Blending Sufi Orders:

Hazrat's spiritual journey took him across lands, where he learned from various Sufi masters. He synthesized the teachings of the Chishti, Qadiri, Rifai, and Kalandari orders, creating a unique path that emphasized love, service, and devotion. His teachings blended the essence of these orders, offering a holistic approach to spiritual growth.

Journey to Mecca:

During his pilgrimage to Mecca, Hazrat encountered spiritual luminaries who shared their wisdom. He spent time in Medina, absorbing the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad's (PBUH) lineage, which deepened his understanding of divine love and service.

Principles and Practices:

Hazrat's path was rooted in the principles of selflessness, compassion, and unwavering devotion to Allah. He encouraged his followers to engage in zikr (remembrance of Allah), meditation, and acts of charity as means to attain spiritual elevation.

Quranic Verse:

"And hold firmly to the rope of Allah all together and do not become divided. And remember the favor of Allah upon you when you were enemies and He brought your hearts together and you became, by His favor, brothers."

— Surah Al-Imran (3:103)

Chapter 13: Anal Haqq – The Truth Within

Understanding 'Anal Haqq':

The declaration "Anal Haqq" ("I am the Truth") is a profound Sufi expression that reflects the realization of unity with the Divine. It signifies the dissolution of the ego and the recognition of one's true nature as a manifestation of Allah's truth.

Hazrat's Realization:

In a moment of deep meditation, Hazrat experienced a vision where the barriers between the self and the Divine dissolved. He understood that every soul is a reflection of Allah's light, and his teachings emphasized this unity and oneness.

A Lesson in Unity:

Hazrat often used parables to convey complex spiritual truths. He likened the soul to a drop of water that, upon merging with the ocean, becomes indistinguishable from it. This analogy illustrated the journey of the soul towards unity with the Divine.

Quranic Verse:

"He knows what is before them and what will be after them, and they cannot encompass Him in knowledge."

– Surah Ta-Ha (20:110)

Part 5: Healing and Wisdom

Chapter 14: The Quranic Body

Divine Imprint:

One of the most miraculous occurrences in Hazrat's life was the appearance of Quranic verses on his body. During a prayer session, his followers witnessed verses glowing on his skin, a testament to his deep connection with the Divine word.

Spiritual Symbolism:

This miracle was seen as a divine imprint, symbolizing Hazrat's embodiment of the Quran's teachings. It served as a reminder of the power and sanctity of Allah's word.

Quranic Verse:

"Indeed, this Quran guides to that which is most suitable and gives good tidings to the believers who do righteous deeds that they will have a great reward."

— Surah Al-Isra (17:9)

Chapter 15: The Healing Touch

Hazrat as Hakim:

Hazrat was renowned for his healing abilities, often called upon to cure ailments that baffled traditional healers. His approach combined spiritual rituals with herbal remedies, offering holistic healing that addressed both the body and soul.

Stories of Healing:

Numerous accounts of miraculous healings spread across the land, drawing people from far and wide seeking his help.

Healing the Blind:

A man born blind approached Hazrat, seeking a cure. Through prayer and the application of blessed oils, Hazrat restored the man's sight. Overwhelmed with gratitude, the man dedicated his life to serving the poor, inspired by the miracle he had experienced.

Curing Paralysis:

A woman suffering from paralysis was brought to Hazrat. After days of prayer and spiritual intervention, she regained movement. Her recovery was celebrated as a testament to the power of faith and Hazrat's divine gifts.

Quranic Verse:

"And when I am ill, it is He who cures me."

— Surah Ash-Shu'ara (26:80)

Chapter 16: Hazrat as Hakam

Role as Judge and Arbitrator:

Hazrat was often sought to resolve disputes and conflicts. His judgments were characterized by wisdom, fairness, and compassion, earning him the title of Hakam—a just and wise judge.

Resolving Tribal Conflicts:

Two tribes, embroiled in a bitter feud, approached Hazrat for resolution. Through his guidance, they found common ground, and peace was restored. Hazrat's ability to mediate and bring harmony was revered, and his teachings on forgiveness and reconciliation left a lasting impact.

Legacy of Justice:

Hazrat's judgments set a precedent for justice and equity. His teachings emphasized the importance of fairness and integrity in all dealings, inspiring a generation to uphold these values.

Quranic Verse:

"O you who have believed, be persistently standing firm in justice, witnesses for Allah, even if it be against yourselves or parents and relatives."

— Surah An-Nisa (4:135)

Part 6: Teachings and Philosophies

Chapter 17: The Essence of Sufism

Core Principles:

Hazrat's teachings embodied the essence of Sufism, focusing on love, unity, humility, and the pursuit of inner truth. He believed that true spirituality transcends rituals and lies in the purity of the heart and the sincerity of one's devotion to Allah.

The Path to Enlightenment:

Hazrat emphasized the importance of self-discovery and spiritual awakening. He taught that enlightenment is a journey of shedding the ego and embracing one's divine nature.

Stories of Transformation:

Countless followers experienced profound transformations under Hazrat's guidance. His teachings awakened dormant spiritual potentials, leading them to a life of devotion and service.

Quranic Verse:

"And I did not create the jinn and mankind except to worship Me."

— Surah Adh-Dhariyat (51:56)

Chapter 18: Love and Devotion

Central Role of Love:

For Hazrat, love was the foundation of spiritual growth and transformation. He believed that love for Allah should manifest in love for all creation, leading to acts of kindness, compassion, and selflessness.

Devotional Practices:

Hazrat encouraged his followers to engage in practices that fostered love and devotion, such as daily prayers, recitation of Quranic verses, and acts of charity.

A Tale of Devotion:

A young man, initially skeptical of Hazrat's teachings, attended one of his gatherings out of curiosity. Captivated by Hazrat's words on love and devotion, he dedicated his life to serving others, becoming a beacon of hope and kindness in his community.

Quranic Verse:

"Say, [O Muhammad], 'If you should love Allah, then follow me, [so] Allah will love you and forgive you your sins. And Allah is Forgiving and Merciful.'"

— Surah Al-Imran (3:31)

Chapter 19: The Pursuit of Knowledge

The Quest for Understanding:

Hazrat believed in the importance of seeking knowledge and understanding as a means to spiritual growth. He encouraged his followers to study the Quran and Hadith, explore the sciences, and engage in intellectual discourse.

Balancing Faith and Reason:

In Hazrat's teachings, faith and reason were not seen as opposing forces but as complementary paths to understanding the divine. He taught that true wisdom lies in the integration of heart and mind, where spiritual insights inform rational thought.

A Scholar's Journey:

Many of Hazrat's followers became renowned scholars and thinkers, inspired by his teachings to pursue knowledge and contribute to the betterment of society. His legacy lives on in the work of these individuals, who continue to spread his message of enlightenment and understanding.

Quranic Verse:

"Read in the name of your Lord who created. Created man from a clinging substance. Read, and your Lord is the most Generous—Who taught by the pen—Taught man that which he knew not."

— Surah Al-Alaq (96:1-5)

Part 7: Legacy and Influence

Chapter 20: Spiritual Influence

Impact on Followers:

Hazrat's teachings profoundly impacted his followers, leading to a spiritual renaissance that transcended borders. His words inspired individuals to seek a deeper understanding of their faith and embrace a life of service and devotion.

Growth of the Spiritual Community:

Hazrat's influence extended beyond his immediate followers, reaching distant lands and inspiring spiritual communities worldwide. His teachings continue to resonate with seekers of truth and spirituality.

A Legacy of Transformation:

Hazrat's legacy is not limited to his miracles and teachings but extends to the transformative impact he had on the lives of those he touched. His followers, inspired by his example, continue to spread his message of love, unity, and spiritual awakening.

Quranic Verse:

"Indeed, those who have believed and done righteous deeds - the Most Merciful will appoint for them affection."

— Surah Maryam (19:96)

Chapter 21: Continuing the Legacy

Modern-Day Relevance:

Hazrat's teachings remain relevant in today's world, offering guidance and inspiration to those seeking spiritual fulfillment. His emphasis on love, compassion, and unity resonates with contemporary seekers navigating the complexities of modern life.

Preserving the Teachings:

Efforts to document and preserve Hazrat's teachings have ensured their continuation for future generations. Scholars, devotees, and spiritual leaders work tirelessly to share his wisdom and keep his legacy alive.

A Testament to Faith:

Hazrat's life and teachings serve as a testament to the power of faith and the potential for spiritual growth. His legacy continues to inspire individuals to seek the divine, embrace their true nature, and live a life of purpose and meaning.

Quranic Verse:

"And strive for Allah with the striving due to Him. He has chosen you and has not placed upon you in the religion any difficulty."

— Surah Al-Hajj (22:78)

NAWAZ ALLAH RABBANI

About the Author

"Through divine inspiration, I was blessed to chronicle the extraordinary life of Doctor Hazrat Nawaz Allah Rabbani (ra), whose birth at high noon in 1977 marked the beginning of a new spiritual awakening. From witnessing the moon bow in his presence to documenting his groundbreaking doctorate in Sufism from Kennedy Baptist University, I have attempted to capture the essence of a saint who unified ancient mystical wisdom with modern knowledge. As his biographer, I remain humbled by the task of preserving the legacy of the Qutub ul Aqtaab who moved stars with his prayers and transformed countless souls with his love."